

Weekly Work | November 19 & 22
God Moves in Power

Overview

The sermon series "God Moves in Power" was a journey through the book of Acts, where we witnessed the Holy Spirit at work through prayer, the gospel, the Church, and ordinary people. As we explored the story of the early church, we discovered that the same God who moved powerfully then is still moving today. This series challenged and encouraged us to live with bold faith, expectant prayer, and a willingness to join God's ongoing mission in the world. The story of Acts is far from over and we're invited to be a part of it.

This Week's Reading

Though we are coming to the end of Acts, the spirit of Acts doesn't have to end. It can continue with us! Acts concludes with Paul in Rome and the gospel advancing without hindrance. We are given a story with a chapter still to be written—and we've been handed the pen to play a role in the ongoing work of the church and the expansion of God's kingdom around the world. Will we say "yes?"

- Acts 28:17-31
- Colossians 1:3-14 and 4:2-6
- Hebrews 12:1-3
- Revelation 7:9-12

As you read, ask yourself

- What do these chapters teach me about who God is (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit)?
- What do they teach me about humanity and the Church?
- What do they teach or reveal about me personally?
