

Weekly Work | September 13

God Moves in Power Through the Gospel

Overview

The sermon series “God Moves in Power” is a journey through the book of Acts, where we witness the Holy Spirit at work through prayer, the gospel, the Church, and ordinary people. As we explore the story of the early church, we’ll discover that the same God who moved powerfully then is still moving today. This series will challenge and encourage us to live with bold faith, expectant prayer, and a willingness to join God’s ongoing mission in the world. The story of Acts is far from over and we’re invited to be a part of it. (Note: This series will explore the Book of Acts thematically rather than going through it chapter by chapter or verse-by-verse.)

This Week’s Reading

Sometimes we hear the gospel in grandiose ways (e.g. in a sermon from a stage). Other times we hear it through personal testimony. In this week’s reading, the power of the gospel comes through the personal attestation of Paul. How did the gospel change him? How has it changed you?

- Acts 22:1-21
- Acts 26:1-29
- Mark 5:1-20
- 1 Timothy 1:12-17

As you read, ask yourself

- What do these chapters teach me about who God is (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit)?
- What do they teach me about humanity and the Church?
- What do they teach or reveal about me personally?